RESTORING DIGNITY

Making a Bequest to UnitingCare Ballarat

UnitingCare Ballarat provides a range of community service programs that nurture our community's most vulnerable and marginalised people.

Since our beginnings we have both listened to and understood our community's needs. As a result, we have shaped our services to support those who are most disadvantaged.

To provide this support we need your help. Please think of us in your Will.

We nurture our community's most vulnerable and marginalised

We have embarked on many projects to aid the Ballarat community and your bequest will support us in continuing to address these needs ...

- Assistance with food and vouchers for food and clothing in times of crisis.
- 24 hour telephone crisis support.
- Visiting programs and social activities for frail aged and people with a disAbility.
- Support for youth and adults living with mental illness.
- Housing assistance and support for families and individuals who are homeless or in housing difficulty.
- Free midday meal for homeless and marginalised people.
- Interest free White Goods Loan.
- Transport to medical appointments and shopping for frail aged and people with a disAbility.
- Support for youth and adults who suffer from issues due to alcohol and substance misuse.
- A range of affordable accommodation:
 - Rooming Houses
 - Reid's Guest House
 - Sunways

By including a Bequest to UnitingCare Ballarat in your Will, you are ensuring that those in need in our region continue to receive vital services.

A Solicitor will be able to advise you on how to best include a gift to UCB in your Will, or you can simply write as follows:

I give and bequeath (insert specific amount, percentage of estate, residue of estate, particular property or item) to UnitingCare Ballarat of 105 Dana Street, Ballarat, to be applied for general purposes or nominate a specific purpose (e.g. Lifeline Ballarat, Emergency Relief, BreezeWay Meals Program, Youth Foyer).

You may be interested in meeting with our Chief Executive Officer who will be more than happy to show you around our agency and speak with you regarding where your bequest may best assist.
